Dear Parent / Guardian,

Despite yet another challenging year, the Glen Eira College community has continued to demonstrate resilience and passion. We are proud that our high-quality education and wellbeing programs provided some much-needed stability for our students throughout the year. It is in this spirit that we are looking forward to another great year of teaching and learning and would like to advise you of Glen Eira College's voluntary financial contributions for 2022.

Glen Eira College provides free instruction to fulfil the Victorian curriculum and we want to assure you that all contributions are voluntary. - Resource the library and maintain class sets of books
- Maintain online digital subscriptions
- Complete the upgrade of our sports oval
- Support families during remote learning
